MARY HARRIS, CLERK

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF SHELBY COUNTY, ALABAMA

MARY RICE,

Plaintiff,

vs.

PORTFOLIO RECOVERY ASSOCIATES,
LLC; EXPERIAN INFORMATION
SOLUTIONS, INC.; and EQUIFAX INFORMATION SERVICES, LLC;

Defendants.

Case No.: _____

COMPLAINT

COMES NOW Plaintiff, by and through counsel, in the above styled cause, and states his Complaint against the Defendants as follows:

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Mary Rice is a resident of Shelby County, over 19 years of age, and is competent to bring this action.

2. Defendant Portfolio Recovery Associates, LLC (hereinafter "Portfolio") is registered in Delaware with its principal place of business located in Norfolk, Virginia and was doing business in Shelby County, Alabama at all times material to this Complaint. Portfolio acted as a debt collector and debt buyer throughout the United States including Shelby County, Alabama at all times material to this Complaint.

3. Defendant Experian Information Solutions, Inc. (hereinafter "Experian") is an Ohio corporation with its principal place of business located in Orange, California and was doing business in Shelby County, Alabama at all times material to this Complaint.

4. Jurisdiction is proper in the Circuit Court of Shelby County, Alabama. Plaintiff is a resident of Shelby County, and all of, or substantially all of, the wrongs complained of occurred in Shelby County. The matter in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds the minimum jurisdictional amount required by the Circuit Court of Shelby County, Alabama.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

5. In March, 2011, Defendant Portfolio sued Plaintiff in the Small Claims Court of Shelby County, Alabama, with a case number of SM-11-284. In this suit, Defendant Portfolio asserted it was the owner of a certain debt it claimed was allegedly owed by Plaintiff and asserted the amount owed was $2658.97.

6. Plaintiff answered the Complaint with a denial of Portfolio's claims, and Defendant Portfolio dismissed its claims against Plaintiff with prejudice in lawsuit numbered SM-11-284 on or about May 24, 2011.

7. On or about May 24, 2011, The Honorable John H. Alsbrooks, District Judge for Shelby County, entered an Order dismissing Portfolio's claims in case number SM-11-772 with prejudice; and this dismissal with prejudice entered in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendant Portfolio by the Court was a final adjudication on the merits.

8. Defendant Portfolio did not appeal within the time allowed, thus, making the judgment a final judgment from which an appeal no longer lies.

9. Defendant Portfolio is not the owner of this alleged debt.

10. Defendant Portfolio reported to the credit reporting agencies that Plaintiff owed this money and was in default.

11. Plaintiff did not owe this money to Defendant Portfolio.

12. The debt being collected is a “consumer debt” as defined by the FDCPA.

13. Plaintiff is a “consumer” as defined by the FDCPA and FCRA.

14. Defendant Portfolio is a “debt collector” as defined by the FDCPA.

15. After the dismissal with prejudice by the Small Claims Division of the Shelby County District Court, Plaintiff sent a letter to Defendant Experian requesting an investigation and/or reinvestigation of the account that still appeared on Plaintiff’s credit reports with regard to Portfolio.

16. Plaintiff requested the account be deleted, as Plaintiff did not owe said account.

17. Plaintiff requested Defendant Experian to contact the District Court to verify that Plaintiff had indeed won the lawsuit in order to determine that this account should be immediately deleted from her credit reports.

18. No Defendant was concerned or cared about what the District Court did in the case as no Defendant had any intention of performing a reasonable investigation.

19. In fact, no Defendant performed any type of reasonable investigation and/or re-investigation.

20. Defendant Experian notified Defendant Portfolio in accordance with the FCRA of the dispute by the Plaintiff.

21. Alternatively, Defendant Experian did not properly notify Defendant Portfolio and, as a part of this failure, did not include all relevant information provided by Plaintiff in their notification of Defendant Portfolio. This includes notification that Plaintiff won the lawsuit in the District Court.

22. All Defendants failed to properly investigate and/or re-investigate these disputes, and if Defendants had properly investigated, the accounts would have been deleted.

23. On or about July 12, 2011, Defendant Experian issued the result of its investigation in Confirmation report number 0971-3506-11 verifying the Defendant Portfolio account stating Plaintiff owed Defendant the amount of $2959 and that the inaccurate information would remain on Plaintiff's credit report until October 2015 and refusing to delete said account although Plaintiff provided Defendant Experian the proper information to show said account was not properly placed in or on her credit report, record, and/or file. The report Defendant Experian issued to Plaintiff and the failure to properly and/or reasonably investigate and re-investigate by Defendants Experian and/or Portfolio following the entering of judgment against Defendant Portfolio in the District Court case it brought against Plaintiff shows that Defendants failed and willfully refused to conduct an adequate and reasonable investigation and/or re-investigation into Plaintiff's dispute.

24. All Defendants were provided with more than sufficient information in the dispute and in their own internal sources of information (which includes the knowledge of Defendant Portfolio through its District Court trial counsel that Plaintiff won the case at trial) to conduct an investigation and to conclude that the account complained of was being reported incorrectly.

25. Defendant Experian has proclaimed in the past it was obligated to rely upon whatever the public records state about a consumer.

26. For example, had Plaintiff not answered the Small Claims suit and a default judgment was entered, and Plaintiff disputed with the Consumer Reporting Agencies, Experian would have taken the position that they were bound by the state court judgment which says Plaintiff owes the money.

27. Defendant Experian, however, refused to rely upon what the District Court judge actually rendered in this case, particularly, that Portfolio's claims against the Plaintiff were dismissed with prejudice.

28. The dismissal with prejudice was not appealed to the Shelby County Circuit Court, and there is no avenue for appeal for Defendant Portfolio of this judgment as the time to appeal has long since passed.

29. Despite this knowledge, Defendant Experian has completely abdicated its obligations under federal and state law and has instead chosen to merely “parrot” whatever the customer, Defendant Portfolio, has told it to say.

30. Defendant Experian has a policy to favor the paying customer, in this situation Defendant Portfolio, rather than what the consumer or even a court says about a debt.

31. The primary reason for this wrongful policy is that furnishers in general, and debt collectors specifically, provide enormous financial rewards to these Defendants.

32. The importance of keeping balances on credit reports is that all the Defendants understand that one of the most powerful methods furnishers (and debt collectors) have to wrench payment from a consumer is by placing accounts with balances on the consumer’s credit reports.

33. Defendant Portfolio has a policy and procedure to refuse to update credit reports of consumers, like Plaintiff, who do not owe the alleged debt. This practice and procedure keeps false information on the credit report. The false information consists of a balance shown as owed when Defendant Portfolio knows no balance is owed.

34. Defendant Portfolio promises through its subscriber agreements or contracts to accurately update accounts but Defendant Portfolio has willfully, maliciously, recklessly, wantonly, and/or negligently failed to follow this requirement as well as the requirements set forth under the FCRA, FDCPA, and state law, which has resulted in the intended consequences of this information remaining on Plaintiff’s credit reports.

35. Defendant Portfolio had a duty, and has a duty it assumed through the subscriber agreement and other actions, to accurately report the balances, and this duty was breached in a negligent, wanton, reckless, willful, intentional, and/or malicious manner.

36. Defendant Portfolio has a policy and/or practice to “park” its accounts on at least one of the consumer’s credit reports. In the credit reporting industry, the term “park” means to keep a false balance (or false account) on the credit report so that the consumer will be forced to pay off the balance in order to obtain a refinancing or to qualify for a loan or to increase the consumer’s credit score from the artificially lowered score which directly resulted from the Defendants’ intentional and malicious conduct. In this matter, Defendants Portfolio and Experians’ failure to remove Plaintiff’s account was precisely “parking” of an account in order to extort monies from consumers like Plaintiff in order to have an inaccurate trade line removed.

37. In parking or allowing the parking of an account, all Defendants know they are violating their obligations and duties under federal and state law to accurately report the account and/or the balance.

38. All Defendants know that parking a balance will lead to false and defamatory information being published every time the Plaintiff’s credit report is accessed and this is the malicious and intentional design behind Defendants’ actions with the goal to force the Plaintiff to pay on an account she does not owe.

39. All Defendants maliciously, willfully, intentionally, recklessly, and/or negligently failed to review the information provided in the disputes and that was already in their files and to conduct a reasonable investigation and/or re-investigation into Plaintiff’s disputes.

40. At all relevant times Defendant Experian failed to maintain and failed to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy of Plaintiff’s credit report and/or to conduct a reasonable and proper investigation and/or re-investigation and/or provide proper consumer disclosures, concerning the accounts in question, violating 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681e(b), 1681i and state law.

41. Defendant Portfolio failed to properly maintain and failed to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy of Plaintiff's credit information and Plaintiff's credit report and/or to conduct a reasonable and proper investigation and/or re-investigation, concerning the account in question, thus violating state law and FDCPA as set forth in this Complaint. These violations occurred before, during, and after the dispute process began with the consumer reporting agencies.

42. Defendant Portfolio has taken aggressive actions in a continued effort to collect the alleged debt against Plaintiff. These actions include the continued reporting of the debt to third parties, including consumer-reporting agencies such as Experian, that Plaintiff owed the debt, that Plaintiff defaulted, and that the account was in collections.

43. Defendant Experian has failed to maintain Plaintiff's accounts with maximum accuracy and all Defendants have failed to properly investigate and/or re-investigate the accounts in response to the disputes made by Plaintiff.

44. Further, Defendant Portfolio violated the FDCPA numerous times in numerous ways by sending collection letters dated June 29, 2011 and July 1, 2011 to Plaintiff attempting to collect this debt when Defendant Portfolio had no legal right or authority upon which to collect.

45. In letter dated June 29, 2011, Defendant Portfolio sent Plaintiff a letter stating it had "completed [its] investigation of [Plaintiff's] dispute concerning this account" and that it was "transfer[ing] the account back to the collection floor to pursue collection of the outstanding balance due on this account."

46. In another letter dated July 1, 2011, Defendant Portfolio offers Plaintiff various "settlement options," although it was previously adjudicated Plaintiff did not owe Defendant

Portfolio this debt.

47. The conduct of the Defendants has proximately caused Plaintiff past and future monetary loss, past and future damage to Plaintiff's credit and credit worthiness, past and future mental distress and emotional anguish, and other damages that will be presented to the trier of fact.

48. It is a practice of Defendant Portfolio to maliciously, willfully, recklessly, wantonly and/or negligently ignore and refuse to follow the requirements of the FDCPA, FCRA, and state law.

49. It is a practice of Defendant Experian to maliciously willfully, recklessly, wantonly and/or negligently ignore and refuse to follow the requirements of the FCRA, and state law.

50. All actions taken by employees, agents, servants, or representatives of any type for any and/or all Defendants were taken in the line and scope of such individuals (or entities') employment, agency or representation.

51. All actions taken by any and/or all Defendants were done with malice, were done willfully, and were done with either the desire to harm Plaintiff and/or with the knowledge that their actions would very likely harm Plaintiff and/or that their actions were taken in violation of the FCRA and/or FDCPA and/or state law and/or that they knew or should have known that their actions were in reckless disregard of the FCRA and/or FDCPA and/or state law.

52. All Defendants have engaged in a pattern and practice of wrongful and unlawful behavior with respect to Plaintiff's accounts and consumer reports and as such all Defendants are subject to punitive damages and statutory damages and all other appropriate measures to punish and deter similar future conduct by these Defendants and similar companies.

COUNT I

VIOLATIONS OF THE FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT

15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq.

53. All paragraphs of this Complaint are expressly adopted and incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

54. Defendant Portfolio violated the FDCPA in numerous ways, including, but not limited to the following:

- a. Falsely reporting the debt on Plaintiff's credit reports when Plaintiff does not owe the money;
- b. Suing the Plaintiff when there was no basis to do so;
- c. Continuing to assert the suit in state court when Defendant Portfolio knew, or should have known, there was no basis for doing so; and
- d. Engaging in collection activities on a debt that Plaintiff does not owe and that Defendant Portfolio is not entitled to collect upon.
- e. Continuing to attempt to collect upon a debt it knew or should have known was legally uncollectible after Defendant Portfolio dismissed its claims in its lawsuit against Plaintiff and subsequently sending collection letters to Plaintiff dated June 29, 2011 and July 1, 2011.

55. The violations of the FDCPA by the Defendant Portfolio are the proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries under the FDCPA due to Defendant Portfolio's conduct which violated the FDCPA and caused Plaintiff's actual damages, statutory damages, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, and including, but not limited to, Plaintiff's credit was and is damaged; Plaintiff suffered contempt, ridicule and/or financial injury; Plaintiff has suffered a loss of credit, insurance, and/or other business dealings of varying types; and Plaintiff suffered actual damages for worry, shame, humiliation, loss of sleep, anxiety, nervousness, physical sickness, physical and mental suffering, pain, and anguish.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant Portfolio for statutory, actual, compensatory and/or punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the trier of fact, together with attorneys' fees, interest from the date of injury, and the costs and expenses of this proceeding.

COUNT II

VIOLATIONS OF THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.

56. All paragraphs of this Complaint are expressly adopted and incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

57. Defendant Experian is a "consumer reporting agency," as codified at 15 U.S.C. §1681a(f).

58. Defendant Portfolio is an entity which, regularly and in the course of business, furnishes information to one or more consumer reporting agencies about its transactions or experiences with any consumer and therefore constitutes a "furnisher," as codified at 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2.

59. Plaintiff notified Defendant Experian directly of a dispute on the Defendant Portfolio's account's completeness and/or accuracy, as reported.

60. The credit reporting agencies, Defendant Experian, failed to delete inaccurate information, reinserted the information without following the FCRA, failed to properly investigate and/or reinvestigate Plaintiff's disputes, and failed to provide Plaintiff a proper report of the results of its investigation and/or reinvestigation.

61. Plaintiff alleges that at all relevant times Defendant Experian failed to maintain and failed to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy of her credit report with regard to the accounts in question in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b).

62. Plaintiff alleges that all Defendants failed to conduct a proper, reasonable and lawful investigation and/or reinvestigation as well as provide a proper consumer disclosure in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681i. All Defendants were given notice the suit was dismissed with prejudice but apparently failed to review the court file, contact the District Court, and/or contact counsel for Defendant Portfolio and/or other proper and reasonable measures.

63. All actions taken by the Defendants were done willfully, with malice, and were done with either the desire to harm Plaintiff and/or with the knowledge that their actions would very likely harm Plaintiff and/or that their actions were in violation of the FCRA and state law and/or that knew or should have known that their actions were in reckless disregard of the FCRA and/or state law.

64. Defendants Experian and/or Portfolios' violations of the FCRA proximately caused the injuries and damages set forth in this Complaint, including, but not limited to, Plaintiff's credit was and is damaged; Plaintiff suffered contempt, ridicule and/or financial injury; Plaintiff has suffered a loss of credit, insurance, and/or other business dealings of varying types; and Plaintiff suffered actual damages for worry, shame, humiliation, loss of sleep, anxiety, nervousness, physical sickness, physical and mental suffering, pain, and anguish.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendants Experian and/or Portfolio, jointly and severally, for statutory, actual, compensatory and/or punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the trier of fact, together with attorneys' fees, interest from the date of injury, and the costs and expenses of this proceeding.

COUNT III

DEFAMATION

65. All paragraphs of this Complaint are expressly adopted and incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

66. Defendant Portfolio published false information about Plaintiff by reporting to one or more of the Consumer Reporting Agencies (CRAs) the account merely showing it as being “disputed”.

67. Each time the credit reports of Plaintiff were accessed, a new publication occurred, which was the result intended by the Defendant.

68. Plaintiff alleges that the publications and defamations were done maliciously, without privilege, and with a willful intent to injure Plaintiff.
